*Today our fair town
Slows down slow, looks around
Brings to the fore
When our track was our floor*

*A spike hand driven
A tie hand laid
A dynamite job
A large price paid*

*While sipping coffee, we notice
The trailing of alarm
Is the traffic aware?
Then down comes the arm*

*Traveling west, San Francisco
Traveling east, but a gamble
Whether inland or seaside
Be amazed as you ramble*

*Tourists forgive us
When we seem unaware
That history surrounds us
As you can't help but stare*
